Barcelona is a beautiful Mediterranean city that offers an impressive artistical and cultural heritage. The city is a major economic center, with one of Europe's principal Mediterranean ports. Particularly renowned are architectural works of Antoni Gaudí and Lluís Domènech i Montaner. Other highlights are the Cathedral and its cloister, the Call (old Jewish quarter), the Picasso Museum, the Paseo de Gracia and Gaudí's masterpieces the Casa Milá (La Pedrera) and the Sagrada Famila.

OCT. 5 - IBIZA ARRIVE 7 AM DEPART 9:30 PM

Ibiza is the birthplace of the rave and Christopher Columbus and has deep roots in Mediterranean history. It as acknowledged by UNESCO by its designation of large portions of the island and various cultural icons as World Heritage Sites.

OCT. 6 - CARTAGENA ARRIVE 8 AM DEPART 5 PM

With its strategic position on the Mediterranean, Cartagena boasts an interesting Roman history. The city's bullring sits atop a Roman amphitheater, and the Old Cathedral was built over the stalls of the Roman Theater. Discovered in 1987 and still being excavated, the theater dates to the first century BC. While its landmarks from antiquity certainly are intriguing, Cartagena's lively streets and attractive squares reveal chapters from more recent centuries as well. The magnificent Concepción Castle, perched above the city in Torres Park, dates to the 14th century.

OCT. 7 - GIBRALTAR ARRIVE 9 AM DEPART 5 PM

Like a crouching lion, the Rock of Gibraltar's imposing presence supports the legend that it is one of the two Pillars of Hercules. Dramatically soaring to almost 1,400 feet, it boasts one of the world's most recognizable silhouettes. Over 140 caves have been discovered within its limestone mass. Although linked by land to Spain, the self-governing British colony of Gibraltar maintains a strong allegiance to Britain. Shop the compact commercial center for tax-free treats, or perch atop the summit for thrilling views encompassing Europe and Africa.

OCT. 8 - CASABLANCA ARRIVE 7 AM DEPART 7PM

Centuries-old Casablanca, Morocco's largest city and principal port, lies on the Atlantic coast of North Africa. Awaiting your discovery is a timeless blend of Arabic culture and French sophistication, as seen by the imposing administrative buildings that recall years of colonial influence. Although the spirits of Bergman and Bogart still linger in the narrow alleyways of the old Medina, this gleaming white city has a firm grasp on the 21st century. Bargain-filled souks are reminders of mysterious Africa and shopping aficionados will delight in scouring narrow alleyways for great buys in leatherwork, pottery, carved woodwork and Moroccan rugs

OCT.9 - PORTIMAO ARRIVE 9 AM DEPART 6PM

The white contour of a church on a hilltop, the narrow streets of the old fishermen and tradesmen quarter, the presence of the sea and the immense beach known as Paria da Roch identify the character of Portimao. The old town is dominated by the architecture of the late 19th and 20th centuries: houses boasting wrought-iron balconies, ornate stonework around the windows and doors, balustrades of stone and tile-covered ceramics and walls. The town offers a rich heritage of historical monuments and the eternal natural beauty of the Ria de Alvor.

OCT. 10 - LISBON ARRIVE 5AM

Cosmopolitan Lisbon was the center of the world's last great colonial empire. Although located on the Atlantic coast, Lisbon has the soul of a Mediterranean city with Moorish castles, pastel and white buildings, orange-tiled roofs and luminous blue skies. Set amid the hills and valleys of the northern shore of the River Tagus, it is one of the loveliest capitals in the world.
