Day 1 Placerville/Sacramento/ St. Louis, Missouri

Transfer from Placerville to the Sacramento airport for your flight to St. Louis. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel, the Hilton at the Ball Park. Evening at leisure to enjoy the charm and rich history of this city. This evening is on your own. Overnight, Hilton hotel.

Day 2: Alton, IL Departure 5 PM

Explore St. Louis at your leisure or consider a Pre-Cruise Premium Shore Excursion. One of the many popular attractions is the famous Gateway Arch. This gargantuan piece of modern art commemorates the gateway to the west for thousands of 19th century pioneers. Afternoon transfer to the American Queen to begin your journey on the Upper Mississippi River to St. Paul.

Day 3: Hannibal, Missouri

Hannibal, Missouri has a rich history, diverse industrial economy, and truly remarkable arts. The city was founded in 1819 by Moses D. Bates and became a popular stop along the river for many steamboats traveling up the Mississippi. Hannibal offers more parks per citizen than most towns in the Midwest and was included in the famous "50 Miles of Art." Today, the most popular draw of this quirky town is Hannibal's very own Samuel Langhorne Clemens, recognized world-wide as Mark Twain. Many of the popular characters featured in Twain's novels were based on people Sam had known while growing up in Hannibal. Many of the Characters and influences of the American icon are woven into the streets, shops, restaurants and museums of Hannibal waiting to be uncovered.

Day 4: Scenic River Cruising

Relax on deck with a copy of Huckleberry Finn or another imaginative selection borrowed from our revered Mark Twain Gallery, enjoy some quiet time in the Ladies' Tea Parlor, or recruit your fellow guests for an exciting board game in our Gentlemen's Card Room. For a remarkable one-of-a-kind experience, take a guided tour of the American Queen's Engine Room to explore the inner workings of our classic, steam-powered vessel or take in a guided tour of the Pilot House where you can witness the latest high-tech electronics that help us navigate our innovative paddlewheeler up the changing currents of Old Man River in modern-day America. There is always plenty to do between dawn and dusk on the river!

Day 5: Clinton, Iowa

The city of Clinton has much to offer, all with the beautiful backdrop of the Mississippi River. Situated at the crossroads of the Lincoln Highway and the Great River Road, Clinton is the Eastern-most point in the State of Iowa. At the height of its local economy during the late 19th Century, Clinton was regarded as the lumber capital of the nation; a history that is reflected as visitors pass many old sawmills. Today, agriculture plays a big part in Clinton's economy, which is visible in the beautiful rolling fields filled with luscious, fresh harvest crops. Explore the history of this fascinating river town and discover a lifestyle that will stand out from today's norm!

Day 6: Dubuque, Iowa

Dubuque is Iowa's oldest city and is among the oldest settlements west of the Mississippi River. The first permanent settler of the area was French-Canadian fur trader Julien Dubuque who arrived in 1785. Dubuque's location to the Mississippi and its abundant land and resources attracted large numbers of immigrants, particularly Irish and Germans, from overcrowded cities on the east coast. Dubuque is filled with historic sites, architectural Historic Districts with well-preserved buildings and homes, history and art museums, the great Mississippi River and a revitalized main street that invites guests with Dubuque's claim-to-fame as an "All-American City."

Day 7: La Crosse, Wisconsin

La Crosse, named by explorer Zebulon Pike who saw a group of people playing a game with sticks that looked like a cross, is a popular destination for tourists. Filled with statues, architecture and an exquisite view of the river, this river city is an artist's dream. Like much of Wisconsin, La Crosse became heavily involved with the lumber industry in the mid-1800's until the decline of the forests throughout much of Wisconsin took its toll. In the wake of the vanishing lumber era, La Crosse became a city renowned for its beer making, with around five breweries operating in La Crosse near the turn of the century. Today, make note of lingering pieces of history along the streets of the city, inside local breweries, and within the floorboards of historic homes and businesses.

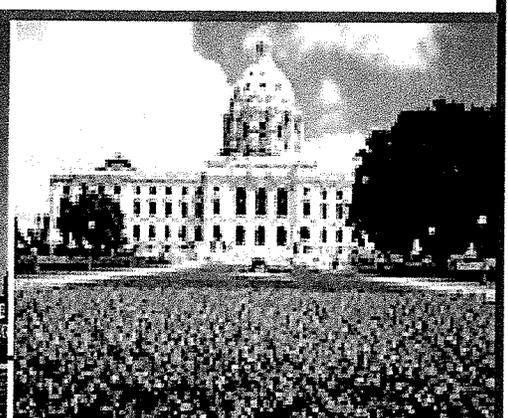

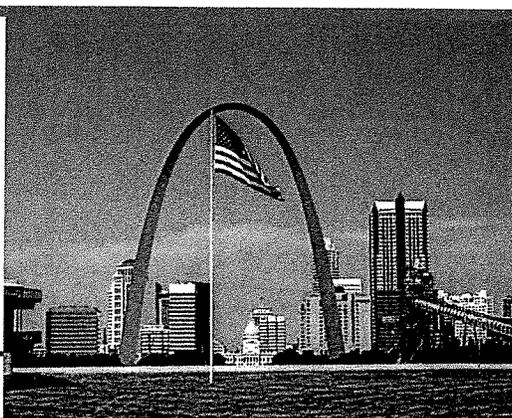

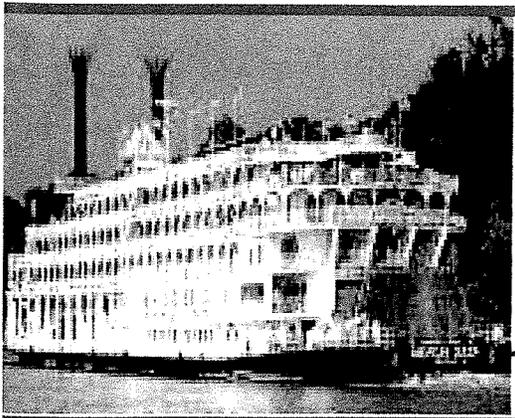

Day 8: Red Wing, Minnesota

Red Wing was included on the National Geographic Traveler's list of most historic places in the world. Settled in the early 1850's, the lands were used mostly for harvesting wheat that would be transported up the river. Later the economy began to flourish due to the thriving pottery industry, which became a main source of income between 1877 and 1967. Today the city offers endless opportunities to travel back in time and learn about settlers and travelers that occupied the land before today, or to admire the craftsmanship and creativity of local artisans of the present and past.

Day 9: Red Wing, Minnesota Arrival 8 AM

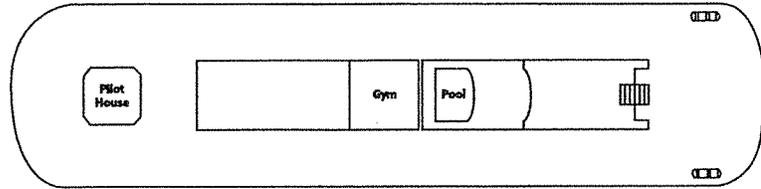

Transfer to St. Paul for your flight home. You may want to extend in St. Paul for a 2 night stay.
