Hosted Breakfast at your hotel. Depart the beautiful city of Miami for your 19 day cruise!

Day 3 /Key West

Key West, Florida, is a haven for the famous, the nonfamous and for those looking to get a little lost. Everyone seems to enjoy Key West's relaxed pace, storybook architecture, colorful history, live-and-let-live local attitude and end-of-the-world feel.

Days 4 -5/ At Sea

Adjust the compass of your mood and design your day exactly as you wish: pamper yourself at the Feng Shui-inspired Crystal Spa, work-out at our state-of-the-art fitness center or Walk-on-Water along our 360° Promenade Deck; enhance your computer skills at our Computer University@Sea, sneak away to watch recently-released movies in our theatre.

Day 6/ Cartegena

Cartagena, more formally known as Cartagena de Indias, is really a tale of two cities: an entirely walled-in, picturesque "old city" (a UNESCO World Heritage site) from the Spanish colonial era, when the city was one of three ports of call for the treasure fleets; and a neighboring modern beach resort—Bocagrande.

Day 7/ Panama Canal

Spend an unforgettable day cruising the Panama Canal, a fifty-one-mile waterway through the rainforest that is one of the world's engineering masterpieces. The ship glides down the canal with inches to spare, through locks that raise and lower it like a toy.

Days 7-8/ Panama City (Overnight)

Panama City, Panama's capital city, is also the country's largest with a sea of skyscrapers on the scale of Manhattan. But Panama City is highly varied, including the original 16th-century settlement of Panama la Vieja, the Spanish-colonial capital of Casco Viejo, the modern business district of El Cangrejo and the Latin downtown area of La Exposicion.

Day 10/Quepos

Microclimates characterize Costa Rica, but in a nation of verdant rain forest, the region around Quepos, on Coronado Bay is one of the richest and most bio-diverse places on earth. Its unspoiled natural beauty has secretly drawn visitors for decades and a cottage tourism industry has arisen to accommodate city-dwellers seeking a glimpse of the planet's vanishing wilds.

Day 11/ Puerto Caldera

The city of Puerto Caldera, on Costa Rica's Pacific Coast, has a number of national parks within easy reach for cruise visitors. Just to the south, Carara is a mecca for birders, especially those chasing the scarlet macaw. Poas Volcano is inland, and rises to nearly 9,000 feet. Barra Honda contains a series of limestone caves. Palo Verde preserves one of the last tropical dry rainforests in Central America. Arenal has the most active volcano in the country. Tapanti contains species of orchids that were not discovered until 2009.

Days 12/ At Sea

Day 13 / Acajutia

Located on the western coast of El Salvador, the town of Acajutla, is the site of the country's largest seaport. During the 19th century, the port became well known for shipping coffee, which continues to make up the majority of Acajutla's exported goods.

Days 14 -15/ At Sea

Day 16-17 / Cabo San Lucas (Overnight)

Cabo San Lucas is nestled on the southernmost tip of the Baja Peninsula, where the cool currents of the Pacific Ocean meet the warm waters of the Sea of Cortez. Commanding rock formations, timeless desert and a translucent sea provide a compelling introduction to this tranquil resort town.

Days 18/ At Sea

Day 19 / San Diego

San Diego combines history with progress. Bordered on one side by the graceful Pacific Ocean lapping its shores and the hot desert plains on the other, this magical city is a festive and colorful attraction for tourists and locals.

Today ends your most enjoyable cruise through the Panama Canal. A short flight back to Sacramento filled with memories of your Accent of Mesoamerica Cruise.
