

COMMUNITY INVITED TO PROVIDE INPUT ON COUNTY'S EXPENDITURES OF STATE MENTAL HEALTH FUNDS

The El Dorado County Health and Human Services Agency, Behavioral Health Division invites the public to provide input on the annual update to its Mental Health Services Act (MHSA) Three-Year Program and Expenditure Plan. The Update covers fiscal year 2024-2025.

Counties receive MHSA funds through the State which are to be used to ensure the County's mental health system is consumer-friendly, recovery-oriented, and accessible to all who need it. Community members can provide input by attending an upcoming community meeting or submitting an online survey or an email. The meetings will be held by Zoom through one of the links below or by calling (669) 900-6833 and entering the webinar ID and passcode.

Community meetings are scheduled as follows:

- Thursday, August 17, 2023, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. <https://tinyurl.com/yusburhk> Webinar ID: 861 3922 8674 Passcode: 987743
