Property Tax and Mortgage Assistance

The California Mortgage Relief Program is currently helping homeowners get caught up on past-due housing payments and past-due property taxes.

- Property Tax Assistance: Up to $20,000 in assistance is available to eligible homeowners who were behind on property taxes prior to 5/31/22.
- Mortgage Relief Assistance: Up to $80,000 is available to eligible homeowners who are behind before 6/30/22.

Funds do not have to be paid back and there is no cost to apply. Eligibility requirements include a pandemic-related financial hardship and a household income at or below the county income limits*. Qualifying homes include single-family, condo or permanently affixed manufactured homes. All types of home ownership qualify: traditional mortgage, reverse mortgage, and mortgage free.

*El Dorado County Qualifying Incomes

Up to:

1 person = $106,400

2 persons = $121,600

3 persons = $136,800

4 persons = $151,950

To apply for either program and for additional information, visit the California Mortgage Relief website at camortgagerelief.org. Please note, there is a single application for both programs – the Property Tax Assistance and the Mortgage Relief Programs. The program can also be reached by phone at 1-888-840-2594.
