Many options available to register to vote before October 20th deadline

The deadline to register to vote and be eligible to cast a ballot in the November 4th General Election is October 20th. "The deadline is midnight on October 20th and postmarks are accepted.

The easiest way to register is using the state's online voter registration system at www.RegisterToVote.ca.gov. The system applies the voter's signature from the DMV database and delivers the information electronically to the county. Forms must be postmarked or delivered to elections by midnight on October 20th to be valid for the upcoming election.

Traditional registration cards are available throughout the county at post offices and libraries. Registration cards must be post marked on or before October 20th if mailed.

Voters may also register from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Elections Department at 2850 Fairlane Court in Placerville or at the Recorder-Clerk's office at 3368 Lake Tahoe Blvd. #108 in South Lake Tahoe.

Currently, there are 106,552 registered voters in El Dorado County.

For more information, the public is encouraged to call the Elections Department at (530) 621-7480.
